

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Internal / External

Regular Instructor

Family and Community Counselling (FCC) Program
Main Campus

Native Education College (NEC) opened in 1967 and became British Columbia's largest private Indigenous College. NEC's purpose is to contribute to an Indigenous, holistic experience that positions the Indigenous learner to uphold their responsibility and obligations to their family and nation of origin as autonomous Peoples. NEC provides culturally relevant education and training for Indigenous Peoples to pursue career aspirations and enhance academic goals in alignment with their diverse cultural identities and traditional knowledge. The NEC longhouse offers access to many resources and in-house support, including cultural and spiritual support, funding, counselling, and career advising from a culturally authentic lens.

Reporting to the FCC Program Manager, NEC seeks an F/T instructor to provide student support, teach 4 courses each fall and winter semester and 1 course in the spring semester, and assist with practicums, curriculum development, and planning, including online Moodle development and other duties as assigned.
