

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Internal/External

Full Time Permanent Education Generalist Main Campus

NEC respects the ancestral and unceded territory of the x̣ṃəθkwəỵəm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and Səl̓ílwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tseil-Waututh) Nations. NEC is dedicated to the Peoples of these territories and beyond. We are centering our Nations, one learner at a time. In doing this work collectively, we demonstrate that commitment is more than just showing up.

NEC is committed to protecting and upholding the dignity, safety, and identities of our Indigenous learners. We honor traditional values and Indigenous knowledge, fostering learners' identities, aspirations, and sense of belonging. Our academic programming and wrap-around supports are aligned with the Longhouse Values of the Host Nations.

Position Summary:

The Education Generalist supports curriculum development, course delivery, and instructional quality across academic programs. This role contributes to curriculum and syllabus development, enhancement of teaching and learning practices, and short-term instructional coverage when required.

The Education Generalist works collaboratively with Deans, Associate Deans, Program Managers, and faculty to strengthen curriculum delivery and learner outcomes. This position does not hold academic approval authority but supports implementation, consistency, and continuous improvement of approved curricula and instructional practices.

Qualifications:

- Degree in Education or a related field; master's degree is an asset.
- Experience in curriculum development, instructional support, or post-secondary teaching.
- Ability to teach or substitute teach across a range of subject areas, as qualified.
- Strong understanding of instructional design and learner-centered pedagogy.
- Familiarity with Indigenous education contexts and culturally responsive teaching practices.
- Strong communication, collaboration, and organizational skills.

Terms:

Appointment to this full-time position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude finalizing an offer of employment. Preference will be given to qualified Indigenous applicants.
