Regular Full Time Temporary

Associate Arts Indigenous Studies Program

Main Campus

NEC respects the ancestral and unceded territory of the x^wməθkwəyəm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and Səlílwətaʔ/Selilwutlh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations. NEC is dedicated to the Peoples of these territories and beyond. We are centering our Nations, one learner at a time. In doing this work collectively, we demonstrate that commitment is more than just showing up.

NEC is committed to protecting and upholding the dignity, safety, and identities of our Indigenous learners. We honor traditional values and Indigenous knowledge, fostering learners' identities, aspirations, and sense of belonging. Our academic programming and wrap-around supports are aligned with the Longhouse Values of the Host Nations.

Position Summary:

The program is seeking a Temporary Full-Time Instructor to teach the following courses: NST 100, INST 101, INST 220. The instructor is responsible for delivering high-quality instruction using appropriate teaching methods that support learner success and align with NEC policies, procedures, and academic standards. This role includes preparing and delivering lectures, facilitating discussions, supporting learners through tutoring and academic guidance, and assessing student progress through assignments, quizzes, and examinations.

The instructor will use NEC's Moodle learning platform to share course materials, post readings, manage assessments, and support students in both in-person and online components of the course. This position plays a key role in fostering a culturally safe, engaging, and supportive learning environment grounded in NEC's Longhouse values. Qualifications:

Any combination of education and work experience as follows will be considered:

- Bachelor's degree in a related field (master's preferred)
- At least 2 years of experience in a relevant field
- Significant online teaching experience, preferably in the post-secondary education system
- Excellent verbal, written and computer communication skills
- Knowledge of Indigenous values, communities and instructional methodology, and experience working with Indigenous organizations and Indigenous adults.
- Experience with Moodle and MS Teams are a must.

Terms:

Appointment to this full-time position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude finalizing an offer of employment. Preference will be given to qualified Indigenous applicants.
