Family Community and Counselling Program Interim Leave Replacement

Main Campus

NEC respects the ancestral and unceded territory of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and Səlilwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations. NEC is dedicated to the Peoples of these territories and beyond. We are centering our Nations, one learner at a time. In doing this work collectively, we demonstrate that commitment is more than just showing up.

NEC is committed to protecting and upholding the dignity, safety, and identities of our Indigenous learners. We honor traditional values and Indigenous knowledge, fostering learners' identities, aspirations, and sense of belonging. Our academic programming and wrap-around supports are aligned with the Longhouse Values of the Host Nations.

Position Summary:

The instructor reports to the Family, Community, and Counselling Program Manager and is responsible for delivering courses, supporting students, and assisting with practicum coordination, curriculum development, and planning. The role also contributes to online Moodle course development and completes additional duties as assigned. For a list of FCC courses, go to www.necvancouver.org.

Qualifications:

Any combination of education and work experience as follows will be considered.

- Bachelor's degree in a relevant field; a master's is preferred.
- Minimum of three years of teaching or instructional experience in a related field, preferably within a post-secondary environment.
- Strong verbal, written, and digital communication skills.
- Knowledge of Indigenous values, communities, and instructional methodologies, with experience working alongside Indigenous organizations and Indigenous adult learners.
- Understanding of assessment for learning from an Indigenous lens.
- Demonstrated ability to navigate Moodle confidently and effectively.
- Experience in curriculum development and lesson planning

Terms:

Appointment to this full-time position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude finalizing an offer of employment. Preference will be given to qualified Indigenous applicants.
