Family, Community & Counselling Program

Casual Instructor

Main Campus

NEC respects the ancestral and unceded territory of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), Skwxwú7mesh (Squamish), and Səlilwətaʔ/Selilwitulh (Tsleil-Waututh) Nations. NEC is dedicated to the Peoples of these territories and beyond. We are centering our Nations, one learner at a time. In doing this work collectively, we demonstrate that commitment is more than just showing up.

NEC is committed to protecting and upholding the dignity, safety, and identities of our Indigenous learners. We honor traditional values and Indigenous knowledge, fostering learners' identities, aspirations, and sense of belonging. Our academic programming and wrap-around supports are aligned with the Longhouse Values of the Host Nations.

Position Summary:

The instructor reports to the Family, Community, and Counselling Program Manager and is responsible for teaching two Academic Writing courses within the FCC program. The role focuses on delivering high-quality English instruction, supporting students in developing academic writing skills, and maintaining a positive, culturally grounded learning environment. www.necvancouver.org.

Qualifications:

Any combination of education and work experience as follows will be considered.

- Bachelor's degree in English, Education, Communications, or a related field; a master's degree is preferred.
- Minimum three years of teaching or instructional experience, preferably in post-secondary or adult education.
- Strong academic writing, editing, and communication skills.
- Experience supporting Indigenous adult learners, with knowledge of Indigenous values, communities, and culturally grounded instructional approaches.
- Understanding of assessment for learning, including approaches informed by Indigenous perspectives.
- Ability to navigate Moodle confidently for online course delivery.
- Experience in lesson planning and developing instructional materials.

Terms:

Appointment to this casual position will require a formal criminal record check, the details of which may preclude finalizing an offer of employment. Preference will be given to qualified Indigenous applicants.
